

I support media diversity

I am writing to you today to comment on Docket No. 02-277, The Biennial Review of the FCC's broadcast media ownership rules. In its goals to promote competition, diversity and localism in today's media market, I strongly believe that the FCC should retain all of the current media ownership rules now in question.

I feel that our media's credibility is already compromised by its commercial character, and that further to relax these ownership rules will mean it will become almost impossible to hear diversity of viewpoints, counterpoints, and dissent. And yet it is precisely our connection to these principles that make us a great people, once known for our creative and innovative thinking.

Thank you,

Abigail Manheim
